

Key Points

- 110 UCSF Educational Skills Workshops and 12 Med Ed Grand Rounds lectures
- 133 faculty developers: 84 core, 23 co-presenters, and 32 invited speakers
- 4.5 out of 5 mean overall session rating
- 3106 participants; 1098 unique individuals attending multiple sessions
- 25 participants per session, average
- All workshops live online as of March 17, 2020

Unique Participants & Seats Filled 2012-2021

In addition to the above:

- 33 TSP sessions offered; 17 Teaching Scholars Program graduates
- 23 TOP and Interprofessional TOP Trained
- 6 UCB-UCSF Masters students, 2 graduates
- 8 UMCU-UCSF PhD students
- 39 New HPE Pathway Learners

Session Ratings 80% completion rate 1=poor to 5 = excellent

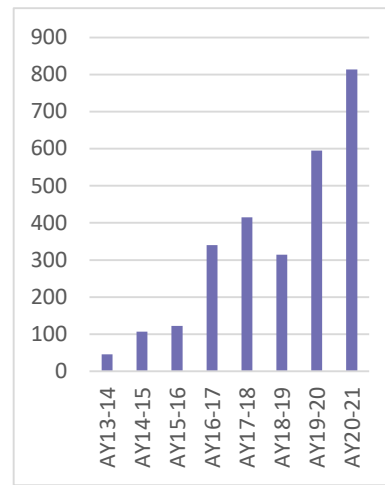

The Teach for UCSF Certificate program, launched with 3 core tracks in 2013, provides a flexible way for faculty and trainees to develop their educational skills. Participants develop expertise in specific teaching theme areas by completing a series of Educational Skills Workshops.

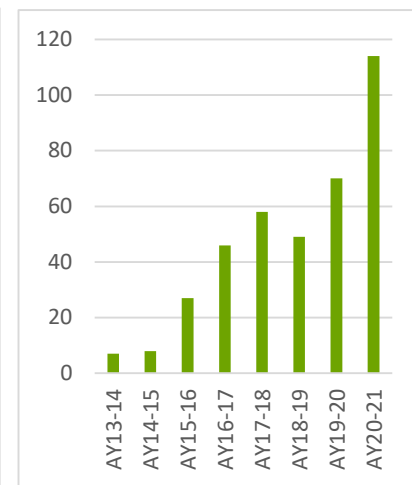

Key Points for Certificates

- 8 Certificate Tracks Available
 1. General Teaching
 2. Clinical Teaching
 3. Simulation Teaching (and mini-certificate)
 4. Interprofessional Teaching
 5. Teaching Quality Improvement/Patient Safety
 6. Education Leadership
 7. Teaching for Equity and Inclusion
 8. Education Research (launched)
- Enrollment and Completion
 - 814 new enrollments in 20-21; 384 unique individuals
 - 114 certificates completed in 20-21; 379 certificates completed as of 6/30/21.
 - 2535 total enrollments; 1273 unique individuals (participants enroll in more than one certificate track)

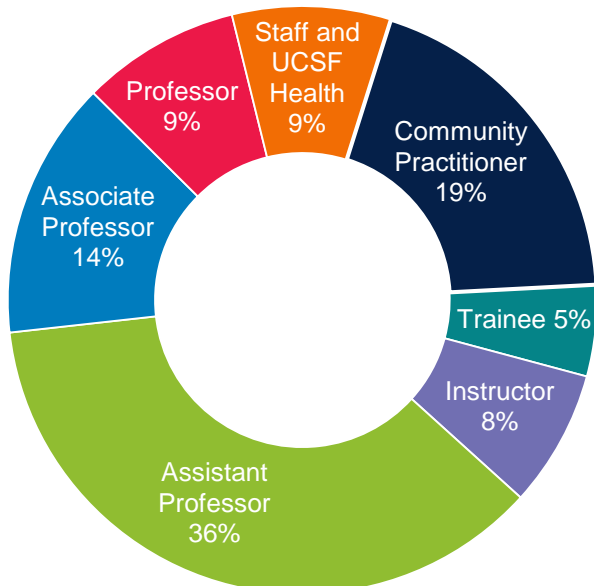

Certificate Enrollments n=2535

Certificate Completions n=379

Certificate Enrollees n=1273

Certificate Enrollees by UCSF School/Sites n=1273

